Churchyard' is the culmination of the literature of melancholy as well as of the Churchyard school. With its pensive mood and love of twilight it is in the Penserioso vein; in its meditation on death and the grave, it belongs more properly to the school of Blair and Young. The Elegy is the best-known poem of Gray. Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard by Thomas Gray ... The poem, written in the voice of a wanderer who was once a nobleman but was forced out of his homeland by war, is an elegy in the broader sense of a "serious, meditative poem" rather than a lament for the dead. It is about brokenness, loss, and the passage of time, rather than about any one person's death in particular. Where is the horse gone?
